LOUISVILLE RIOTS!

The Foreigners are Responsible!

The Louisville Journal publishes several columns of the affidavits of numerous persons in regard to the origin of the riots in that city. We should like to publish them in full had we the necessary room, but must content ourselves with making a few extracts:

William Sowders, being sworn, states: About 5 o'clock on Monday afternoon, August 6, I was sitting with three others on the curb on Tenth street in front of Graff & Weyd's, at the corner of Tenth and Main; there were three or four small boys, from 10 to 12 years old, sitting upon the curb, about 15 feet from us, on Tenth street. While sitting thus, three Irishmen came from the north side of Main, between Tenth and Eleventh, and, passing us, went about half way between Main and Market, on Tenth, when they turned and coming back, one of the boys made some remark, and the Irishmen immediately drew out revolvers and commenced firing upon the crowd, while we were still sitting on the curb.

I sprang up and ran down Main street, to Eleventh; As I approached Chapel street shots were fired from several of the windows of the houses in Quinn's row, on the north side of Main street. I saw a man down on the pavement, whom I afterwards found out was Theodore Rhodes. I turned up Chapel street; as I came to the corner of Chapel and Market, I met two Irishmen, whom I believe to be two of those who had commenced firing at the corner of Tenth and Main; they ran into the coffee-house at the corner of Chapel and Market streets and fired twice as they went into the door. As I passed they slammed the door and commenced fastening up the house. I ran on until I met some Americans who had been summoned to the spot by the firing; they went toward the house at the corner of Chapel and Market; as they approached the coffee-house, several shots were fired at them from the upper windows of the coffee-house. The Irishmen in the house screened themselves with the blinds of the windows, and fired from behind them until the blinds were dashed in by rocks thrown against them. The house was broken open and the two Irishmen were captured. I did not see the proceedings in the house. WM. SOWDERS.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 8th day of August, 1855.

L. A. WHITELEY, Notary Public.

John T. Trice, on oath, makes a statement similar to the above. There is no material difference in the affidavits in regard to the beginning of the affair. He was in company with Sowders.

Richard Marsh was in company with the above, and, on oath, verifies these statements. He says the Irishmen were each armed with a pair of revolvers, that they fired at least twenty shots at the Americans. The American were quietly talking, and were unarmed.

Leander Applegate, being sworn, states that he was present at the commencement of the shooting, and that the affidavit of Marsh is true in every particular.

Read the following affidavits: Michael O'Connell, on oath, says: I reside on the corner of Chapel and Main streets, Louisville, and keep there a grocery store. On the 6th of August, instant, in the afternoon, Theodore Rhodes and David Dougherty came to my grocery; they were my acquaintances and friends. They informed me that there were drunken men going about this part of the city, and I had better close my grocery. I did so at once; as I closed the doors they left and went on the sidewalk; as they left my doors some one fired from the opposite side of the street from the house of Mr. McDonald, a very clever man, and who I believe knew nothing of it. Rhodes fell when the shot was fired, and died soon after. Dougherty was also shot, but I did not see that. Dougherty and Rhodes were both quiet and perfectly sober. They neither did nor said anything to give offence to any one. They were peaceable and clever, well-behaved gentlemen. Rhodes had just shaken hands with my wife at the door before he was shot. Immediately and at once after Rhodes was shot, about seventeen shots were fired from the same house in quick succession. The shots took effect in my house, and are now to be seen by any one; one of them struck me in the right leg. When these shots were fired I saw no disturbance and heard none, and there was not the slightest cause for it, that I can imagine, and but for these shots I believe there would have been no difficulty or disturbance; at any rate they were the beginning, and I am sure the cause of what afterwards occurred. I am an Irishman and a Catholic.

MICHAEL O'CONNELL.

Subscribed and sworn to August 8th 1855.

O. H. STRATTAN, N. P.

I, Joanna O'Connell, wife of Michael O'Connell, on oath, say—I have heard the above affidavit of my husband read, and know the same is true, and I adopt and make it part of this affidavit.

JOANNA O'CONNELL.

B. C. Hord, of the firm of H. T. Curd & Bro., makes affidavit as to the reliability and character of O'Connell and his wife.

This day David Dougherty states on oath before the undersigned, a justice of the peace for said county, that, on the evening of Monday, August 6, 1855, about 4 or 5 o'clock, Theodore Rhodes and himself went to the house of their friend Mr. M. O'Connell, an Irish grocer, corner of Main and Chapel streets, in an office of courtesy; having rendered the friendly duty, we stepped out, intending to go home, but almost instantly Rhodes was shot down, mortally wounded, and myself shot in the shoulder, arm and side, both of us by an Irishman armed with a double-barrelled gun, from the opposite side of the street, in the passage way of J. McDonald's house. Previous to this there was no mob, no crowd, no difficulty and but few persons on the street. The shots were as unexpected as an earthquake—it was utterly unprovoked on our part either by word or gesture.—There was up to that time nobody shooting or knocking down, up or down the street, so far as I could learn or see.

Whilst talking with Mr. O'Connell I was near the front door, and must have heard or seen any hostile or disturbance on the street in that immediate neighborhood.

DAVID DOUGHERTY.

SAM'L MATLACK, J. P. J. C.

Wm. H. Richardson states on oath. That on Monday, Aug. 6th, (election day) about 2 o'clock, P. M., I was quietly walking out Shelby street just south of Madison, when a man (not an American) from the second lot east of Shelby street, discharged a double-barrelled shot gun, taking effect in my leg and breaking the leg of Mr. Latta who was with me. There was at the time no disturbance on the street. We then got in a hack and started down Madison street with some other persons who I did not know; we discovered a large crowd of Germans and Irish, armed with double-barrelled guns and revolvers, at the corner of Clay and Madison street, and they commenced firing on the hack. Mr. Latta, and the gentlemen with us laid down in the bottom of the hack; I being too tall to shield myself in that way got out and ran with the hack between me and the mob, and was shot in the leg, the shot passing under the horses and hack, when he got opposite the crowd we had to pass between them and a cart on the opposite side of the street; an Irishman from behind the cart, shot me, the ball passing through the calf of my right leg; I then found I was losing strength and opened the hack door and threw myself in the hack whilst the horses were running, my legs hung out, and in that condition I was shot in the legs under the hack.

I have in both legs 115 shot and one bullet wound, and one shot in my right hand.

W. H. RICHARDSON.

Subscribed and sworn to, August 8th, 1855.

There is a touching beauty in the following appeal of DANIEL ULLMAN to the citizens of his native city, Wilmington, Del. We would rather be in the place of the Delawarean farmer, and the author of this speech, than that of the New Hampshire President, with all his laurels won in Mexico:

"I look around, and I meet the gaze of those who have known me all the days of my life. I look around; and I behold scenes familiar to me from the dawn of reason. These beautiful hills, rising to meet the first rays of the morning sun; yonder placid river, which, flowing majestically, bears upon its broad bosom the freight of many a fair climate; these fertile fields, with harvests waving, golden in the breezy warmth of the summer sky; those romantic dells, where the rustling forest is made musical by the dashing of the limpid waters—every glade teeming with spirit-stirring memories of colonial tradition, and revolutionary history; all these are familiar things to me. This fair earth, and these fairer skies, all have tongues for my ear; their thrilling voices find a responsive chord in my heart; for—

"This is my own, my native land."

And yet this has been denied. An attempt has been made to rob me of my birth-right. Because more than one hundred and twenty thousand of the freemen of the great State of New York—the most powerful in the Union—saw fit to cast their suffrages for me—a native of one of the smaller States in the Union—as their candidate for the Chief Magistracy of that State—caulimines were showered on my devoted head.

"Thick as autumnal leaves that strew the brooks in Vallombrosa,"

Venerable men! Fathers! Mothers! Sons and daughters of Delaware! I appeal to you—that you may decide whether I shall be subjected to this gross wrong. Am I not a Delawarean? Am I not an American? I now stand almost in sight of the graves of my father and my mother—descendants of a long line of French Huguenots. I see many in this assembly who knew them well.—They can bear testimony that in their lives they were upright, and in their deaths they were honored. They now sleep the sleep of the righteous and the pure; and I, their offspring, this day stand before you, men of Delaware, to defend their memories, and to defend myself. I was born in this city of Wilmington; and all the falsifiers, since the days of Ananias and Sapphira, cannot change the fact.

Daniel Ullman was the American candidate for Governor of New York, last fall, and was charged with being a native of Calcutta, and stigmatized as a "Hindoo."

Horace Greeley says that the soil of France is better than that of our own Western States; though it is not half so productive on account of want of intelligent tillage.

John L. Jackson, who was in the Fayette jail awaiting trial for the murder of George W. Smith, of Garrard, at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, in June last, escaped on Sunday night, the 5th inst. By a published card of the Jailor we learn that the key of the prisoners cell was stolen from a private room in the Jailor's house, by some one who with it opened the door and let him out. The Jailor offers a reward of $100; and it will be seen by a proclamation in our paper that the Governor has offered a reward of $500. [Frankfort Commonwealth.]

We see also that Mrs. Smith, the wife of the murdered man, offers a reward of $500 for the delivery of Jackson to the Jailor of Garrard county.

The Washington Union, of the 17th inst., announces that the President has appointed Dr. Parker as Commissioner to China.

The Belgian government, owing to the abundant harvest, has ordered the bakers to reduce the price of bread.

HOMICIDE IN DANVILLE.—A letter from a friend at Danville, (says the Frankfort Commonwealth) dated August 13th, says:

"Quite a sensation was produced here to-day by the death of a man by the name of Wat. McGinnis, who was shot in this place about 12 o'clock by a Mr. Robert Harbison. Harbison was sitting in the grocery store of Mr. Henderson, and McGinnis walked in. Harbison rose from his seat and shot him almost instantly. I am informed. McGinnis died in about 10 or 20 minutes. The ball entered the left breast, near the region of, if not through, the heart. Harbison is about 23 and McGinnis about 50 years of age—both citizens of this county. I understand that a quarrel has been on hand for two or three years between the parties; and the reason assigned by Harbison's friends for the shooting is that McGinnis had frequently threatened to take the life of Harbison, and sent him word that if he came to this place to-day he would kill him.—These facts it is said can be established by respectable witnesses."

An Illinois correspondent of the St. Louis Intelligencer advocates the election of Garret Davis to the Presidency. He says that if we need a man as honest as Clay, and as determined as Jackson, we can come nearer finding these qualities blended in Davis than any man in the Union.

Mr. JOHN A. CORNEAU, whose articles on wine-growing were published in the Western papers, died at Cincinnati on Friday last, of a pulmonary disease.

FATAL DUEL.—KENTUCKIAN KILLED.—A due was fought in California, on the 14th of July, in which R. Tevis was killed by J. B. Lippincott. Mr. Tevis was formerly clerk of the Court in Shelby, and emigrated some time ago to California.

Tevis made a Court of July speech in Louisville to which Lippincott took exception. This led to his challenging Tevis, who accepted, chose rifles and thirty paces. The meeting occurred. Tevis fired in the air and Lippincott shot him through the heart. Mr. Tevis had many relatives and warm friends in this State.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.—The Frankfort Commonwealth, of Saturday, has the full returns of the recent election for members of the Legislature of this State.

Of the Senators elected this year, the American party elected 13, and the Opposition 7. The Commonwealth says: The eighteen Senators who hold over stand divided in pretty much the same proportion, and the American majority in the Senate will be from 10 to 14.

Of the Representatives elected, the Americans have 61, and the Opposition 39—a majority of 22 in the House.

DEATH OF JOHN ROWAN.—The death of the Hon. John Rowan, of Nelson county, Ky., is announced. He died on Wednesday morning last, in consequence of severe injuries received in a fall from the upper story of the old family mansion at Federal Hill, near Bardonia. Mr. Rowan, under the Administration of Mr. Polk occupied the position of Charge d'Affaires at the Court of Naples, and was greatly esteemed by his countrymen in Europe.

A telegraphic dispatch from New Orleans, of the 20th inst., says: "The fever is rapidly increasing. Deaths during the past week 516, including 394 by yellow fever."

Sam'l. J. Peters, a well known merchant of New Orleans, died on Saturday last of disease of the heart.

The Washington Star notices a rumor as prevalent in that city to the effect that the mission to England, soon to be vacated by Mr. Buchanan, will be tendered to the Hon. W. Preston of Louisville, Ky.

Texas.—Gov. Pease is supposed to be re-elected Governor of Texas. Ex-Governor Bell is elected to Congress.

Mr. Fillmore, at last advices, was in Ireland. He visited the birth place of Burns, July 19th, and crossed over from Scotland to Belfast.

A MODEL JUDGE.—One of the Brooklyn (N. Y.) Justices last week fined his own brother $10 for intoxication.

The inauguration of the new Governor of Kentucky occurs on the fifth Tuesday after the election. Mr. Morehead will, therefore, be inducted into office on the 4th day of September.

No PLACE LIKE HOME.—A negro boy belonging to Judge Sumners, of Kanawha, Va., recently absconded from his home and went to Canada, but was so disgusted with the appearance of things there that he turned about and came back again. He says he has "seen the elephant," and is satisfied.—Richmond Whig.

FARMER'S BANK STOCK.—At the sale of the estate of Wm. Collins, dec'd., in Bourbon county on Friday last, 20 shares of stock in the Farmer's Bank of Kentucky were sold at $110 per share on 4 months time.

Three thousand dollars have been contributed in Baltimore for the Norfolk sufferers and provisions have been sent to that place.

The people of Toledo have voted in favor of a loan of $25,000 for the purpose of erecting Water Works. The majority is 201.

It is said that Santa Anna is investing some of his surplus funds in real estate in New York.—He has bought several elegant houses and lots up town.

Last Friday there was shipped from Chicago 159,513 bushels of corn, 4,000 bushels of wheat, and 900 blbls of flour.

Wm. Townsend, who robbed the State Treasury of Wisconsin of $1,000, has been arrested in St. Louis.

A fine vein of anthracite coal has been discovered in Wisconsin.

There will be a grand temperance barbecue at Falmouth, September 4th.

BY TELEGRAPH. Norfolk, Va., Tuesday, August 21.

Twenty-five deaths from yellow fever are reported for the forty-eight hours ending Monday at two o'clock P. M.

Twenty-four deaths occurred at Portsmouth during the same time.

The Howard Association has sent up an order for a large amount of provisions, mattresses, &c., to go down by the boat this evening.

The collections in this city for the relief of the sufferers now amount to $10,500.

Frankfort, Ky., August 21.

Official returns from one hundred counties give Marchand, C. N., a majority of 5,376.—Flooy, Perry and Lettler counties in favor from which reported as giving a Democratic majority of 1,125.

Philadelphia, August 21.

Captain C. C. Biddle died here this morning. He commanded Camp Dupont, below this city, in the war of 1812.

Providence, August 21.

Prof. B. S. Ears was to-day elected President of Brown University, in place of Prof. Wayland, resigned.

In this mammoth-worshipping age, it is rare to find a man place his usefulness to the public before his interest. During a late visit to the "City of Spindles," we were presented by a professional friend to the celebrated chemist, Dr. James C. Ayer, whose name is now perhaps more familiar at the bedside of sickness than any other in this country. Knowing the unprecedented popularity of his medicines, and the immense sale of them, we had expected to find him a millionaire, and rolling in wealth. But no, we found him in his laboratory, busy with his labors, among his crucibles, alembics, and retorts—giving his best personal care to the compounds, on the virtues of which thousands hang for health. We learned that notwithstanding his vast business and its prompt returns in cash, the Doctor is not rich. The reason assigned is, that the material is costly, and he persists in making his preparations so expensively, that the net profit is small.

"The most confirmed cases of the most distressing diseases, oftentimes arises from indigestion. All of us, more or less, are troubled with this annoying symptom, still as it is a general thing, we do not attempt to medicate until some serious symptoms intervene. We would as a public monitor warn all our readers against the supine neglect, and at the same time recommend to their notice Dr. Hoofland's Gormu Bitters, the original preparation as prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 120 Arch street, Philadelphia. We have seen cures effected through its influence."

TO PRESERVE BEAUTY.—HOW TO PRESERVE BEAUTY.—Don't use Chalk, Lily-White, or any of the so-called cosmetics, to conceal a faded or sallow complexion.

If you would have the roses brought back to your cheek, a clear, healthy and transparent skin, and vigor infused through the system, get a bottle of Carter's Spanish Mixture, and take it according to directions. It does not taste quite as well as your sweet-meats; but, if after a few days you do not find your health and beauty reviving, your step elastic and vigorous, the whole system refreshed and invigorated like a Spring morning, then your case is hopeless; and all the valuable certificates we possess go for naught.—It is the greatest purifier of the blood known; is perfectly harmless, and at the same time powerfully efficacious. WE daily hear of the most astonishing cures being effected by that great and popular medicine, the genuine H. G. FARRELL'S ARABIAN LINIMENT, and we can truly say, from our own knowledge, that no medicine ever discovered has performed the same wonderful cures, that it has, both in man and beast, and it is equally good for both, which makes it so truly valuable. It is therefore hailed by the suffering as the greatest blessing of the age, and no one would ever allow himself to be without this sovereign remedy, who has once witnessed its magic power over disease, and its wonderful power in relieving pain, however severe, in a few minutes time. We earnestly desire you to call upon the agent, who will furnish you, free of charge, a small book containing, besides other valuable information, a large list of certificates from many of the most respectable persons, of cures effected by this celebrated medicine, which surely are enough to convince the most sceptical of its transcendent virtues. We notice several certificates of rheumatism cured after the patient had suffered every thing but death for five to twenty years. Also cases of paralysis, or loss of use of the limbs, where the flesh had withered away, leaving nothing apparently but dried sin and bone, presenting so horrid a spectacle that their FRIENDS LOOKED UPON THEM AS PAID UP HUMAN EFFORT to relieve. It is the most efficacious remedy known for burns, sprains, wounds, bruises, chilblains, neuralgia, toothache, bites of insects and reptiles, sore throat, sore or weak eyes, tumors, sun pain, etc.; and is used with unbounded success in most of the ailments of horses and cattle, such as swellings, larynx, sprains, bruises, wounds, stiff neck and joints, lameness, swellings, galls or chafes, sore eyes, partial blindness, etc. If used in the beginning of fistula, poll-evil, ring-bone and spavin, it will invariably stop their further progress. Every family should keep this valuable medicine on hand, ready for any emergency. 45

We earnestly desire you to call upon the agent, who will furnish you, free of charge, a small book containing, besides other valuable information, a large list of certificates from many of the most respectable persons, of cures effected by this celebrated medicine, which surely are enough to convince the most sceptical of its transcendent virtues. We notice several certificates of rheumatism cured after the patient had suffered every thing but death for five to twenty years. Also cases of paralysis, or loss of use of the limbs, where the flesh had withered away, leaving nothing apparently but dried sin and bone, presenting so horrid a spectacle that their FRIENDS LOOKED UPON THEM AS PAID UP HUMAN EFFORT to relieve. It is the most efficacious remedy known for burns, sprains, wounds, bruises, chilblains, neuralgia, toothache, bites of insects and reptiles, sore throat, sore or weak eyes, tumors, sun pain, etc.; and is used with unbounded success in most of the ailments of horses and cattle, such as swellings, larynx, sprains, bruises, wounds, stiff neck and joints, lameness, swellings, galls or chafes, sore eyes, partial blindness, etc. If used in the beginning of fistula, poll-evil, ring-bone and spavin, it will invariably stop their further progress. Every family should keep this valuable medicine on hand, ready for any emergency. 45

THE public are cautioned against another counterfeit, which has lately made its appearance, call it W. B. Farrel's Arabian Liniment, and we can truly say, from our own knowledge, that no medicine ever discovered has performed the same wonderful cures, that it has, both in man and beast, and it is equally good for both, which makes it so truly valuable. It is therefore hailed by the suffering as the greatest blessing of the age, and no one would ever allow himself to be without this sovereign remedy, who has once witnessed its magic power over disease, and its wonderful power in relieving pain, however severe, in a few minutes time. THE NEWS.

CYNTHIANA, KY.
THURSDAY, - - - AUGUST 23.

Death of Ex-Governor Metcalfe.

On the 18th inst., at his residence in Nicholas county, Ky., Ex-Governor THOMAS METCALFE, departed this life. For about two weeks before his death, he was confined to his bed with fever, which finally turning into cholera, soon proved fatal. Thus has passed from the stage of life, one of the best and noblest of men. He was one of the few of our successful politicians who, having merited and obtained high civic stations from his fellow-citizens, neglected to make selfish uses of his honors, and thus failed to make them the means of acquiring great riches. Having had many opportunities to become wealthy, he nobly passed them by and died poor.

Governor Metcalfe was born in Fauquier county, Va., in 1780, and while still a boy came with his parents to Fayette county, in this State, where he learned the trade of a stone-mason under his brother. While he was in his apprenticeship, his father died, and he immediately took upon himself the responsibility of supporting his widowed mother and sisters, thus manifesting at that early period of his life, the high qualities which afterwards distinguished him throughout his long career, and rendered him the most beloved of all the public men of Kentucky.

Before he abandoned his trade of stone mason for more aspiring pursuits, he laid the foundations of several of the best buildings in Cynthiana; and often when he was visiting here, have we seen him point them out, and heard him talk most interestingly of events that occurred while he was laboring upon them.

In 1813, he commanded a company of Kentuckians in the war with Great Britain, and was at the memorable battle of Fort Meigs, where he proved that he had the elements of manhood within him by his courage in the face of danger. In 1818, he was elected to the Congress of the United States, beating Gov. Desha, the former representative from his district, by a large majority, and continued to be a member of that body until 1828, when he was elected Governor of Kentucky. His opponent in the race for Governor was the talented and distinguished WILLIAM T. BARRY, one of the most gifted men in the western country, of his day, and such a man he had the honor of contending with and defeating. After the expiration of his gubernatorial term, Gov. Metcalfe retired to private life, nothing enriched by the high offices he had held, and so continued with a few unimportant exceptions, for many years. In 1848 he was elected to fill Mr. Crittenden's unexpired term, in the U. S. Senate, and remained in that body about two years; after which he again retired to private life upon his farm in Nicholas county, where he lived, beloved and respected by all, until his death on the 18th inst.

Gov. Metcalfe was one of those high-minded men who are above the mean and supercilious pride which is fostered in most persons by a little good fortune. Honors did not elate him; the adulation he received from his fellow-men did not pamper and encourage him to look down on them with contempt; such things only excited his gratitude and caused him to be more unassuming and cordial than ever in his intercourse with his acquaintances. Never did he see any honest man, however humbled by circumstances, of whom he deemed himself the superior. Never was there a poor ragged boy in Ky. with whom he would refuse to sit and talk, and take a pride in it too. In the long course of his life we have never heard his honesty impeached; and this must be his eulogium, that among all the distinguished men of Kentucky, it would be difficult to find one who stands as high for integrity as did he.

Our old friend, Maj. E. S. Cowles, has changed his location from the Phoenix to the Broadway Hotel, Lexington, where his numerous friends in Harrison can in future find him.

The Eastern Mail in 1827. We copy the following from the old "Cynthiana Advertiser," of February 24, 1827: "There was an entire failure of the eastern mail on last evening, owing to a rise of water in the North Fork, (of Licking river) which will readily account for the barrenness of our present sheet. We will endeavor to bring up the deficit next week."

We expect the enormous mail must have been carried on a wheelbarrow in those days.

The fall races over the Cynthiana course commenced on Monday night last. Track Main street. Sam V. entered a young colt from Germany, who made the quickest time on record from near the grave-yard to the Kossuth-House. Great sport for the boys.

The Louisville Riots. Who is to blame?

The Louisville Democrat denounces our assertion, in our last issue, that the recent riot in that city was originated by the shooting down of innocent and unarmed American citizens, with out provocation, by lawless bands of foreign desperadoes, as "a notorious lie." The Democrat need not suppose for an instant that its unscrupulous mis-statements will weigh in the balance of public opinion against the sworn testimony of the most respectable citizens of Louisville. We appeal to the Democrat and—PSAW! what is the use of it? We were about to appeal to the editor of the Democrat's pride as an American citizen, and ask him, if it is not a humiliating position in which he is placed, and if he does not so feel it. But appealing to the Democrat's pride of country, would be like appealing to the honesty of the fox, the magnanimity of the hyena, or the intellect of the ass. The Democrat, and its puerile imitators, and all the niminy-piminy, small-fry, bag-o-wind orators in the foreign party, cannot evade the truth, which is conclusively proven, not only by the affidavits of gentlemen of respectability, but by the evidence of witnesses who voted with, and can say mass, with as good grace as the editor of the Democrat. No, the fact is just about this: the DEMOCRACY WERE DEFEATED—that is why "the galled jade winces." The foreigners were the aggressors. The Democrat, Times, and all the other hirelings and trucklers to foreignism cannot get rid of it, by all the special pleading they may resort to. It will stick to them like the shirt of Nessus. The assertion that we were guilty of falsehood, is without foundation, and base as are the views of the editor of the Democrat in regard to truth, he is perfectly aware of it.

New ADVERTISEMENTS.—Mrs. Ormsby advertises the Fall and Winter Session of the Harrison Female Seminary to commence on Monday, Sept. 3d. This school is so well known, that it is only necessary to make the announcement of the time of opening to ensure a large attendance.

Rev. G. S. Savage advertises that his institution, the Millersburg Male and Female Seminary, will be opened on the 3d day of Sept. This school is also well and favorably known.

Mr. Fuller's school opens on the 3d of Sept., in Jones' Row. Mr. F. has taught but one session in Cynthiana; but we are pleased to learn that he rendered complete satisfaction, and came fully up to the high recommendations which he brought with him.

Rev. C. Page's school will also commence on the 3d of Sept., at the Harrison Academy building. It is needless to say anything in praise of this school, as it is well known far and wide.

John L. Magee advertises his fall stock of silk hats.

We regret that some provoking typographical errors crept into friend Crutchfield's school advertisement last week. Read it again; they are corrected in this week's issue.

We learn that Dr. E. O. Bell, of Flemingsburg, an exemplary citizen and clever gentleman, died of cholera on Monday night last. Dr. B. was a son-in-law of the late Maj. W. K. WALL.

We are indebted to H. E. Shawhan and Mrs. J. R. Barbee for some large and handsome beets. Also, to W. S. Raviland for some large tomatoes.

ACCIDENT.—A negro belonging to Jas. MILLER, a few miles above town, went to sleep on the Covington and Lexington railroad track, yesterday morning, and the mail train up passed over him, cutting off one foot and breaking one arm. He was placed near there, by his master, to guard some stock.

LEO BROKE.—A youth, named MARSHALL, while engaged in threshing out wheat near Zion Church, in this county, yesterday morning, had his leg broken by a kick from a horse.

Our army swore terribly in Flanders," which is a small matter to the way in which our friend Ross "makes up" clothing. Give him a trial.

The Tribune estimates the taxes of New York city, for the ensuing year, at $6,000,000; and still they are going up.

We regret to learn that J. P. Campbell, Esq., a son-in-law of Gov. Metcalfe, died at Forest Retreat, last week, of cholera; also a servant of Gov. M.'s.

DEATH OF JUDGE FINNELL.—We regret to learn that Ben. W. Finnell Esq., of Georgetown, died in that place on Sunday, Aug. 19, of cholera and fever. He was at the time of his decease the Presiding Judge of the Scott County Court.

Temple of Honor. The members of the Temple of Honor are referred to the advertisement in another column headed "Attention Templar!"

The Small-Pox.

This disease, which has been in our town for some weeks, has, we think, abated; at least, we have not heard of any new cases for some days.

There have been five deaths since the disease made its appearance. Mr. T. J. Boyd, (better known as Brock Boyd,) was the first victim. Mr. Boyd was a soldier of the Mexican war, and fought at the battle of Buena-Vista—Capt. John Shawhan's company.

Mr. Geo. A. Boyd has also been sorely afflicted, and two of his little children, we regret to say, fell victims to the disease.

Mr. Levi F. Boyd died on the 15th inst., of the same disease. Mr. B. contracted the disease while attending in the family of his brother. Like a true soldier, he risked his own life to save those of his relatives. Levi Boyd was also a soldier of the Mexican war; Shawhan's company.

The last death was on Sunday morning last; a Miss Stevens at L. Boyd's. There have been several deaths from small-pox in the country.

Death of Squire Rutter. We regret to announce the death of this estimable man, who breathed his last, at his residence in this vicinity, on Sunday night last, after an illness of two months. Mr. Rutter was well and favorably known, as an honest and upright man, and his death will be lamented by the public at large. Mr. Rutter's death leaves the office of Magistrate in this district vacant.

The cholera is prevailing at different points in the neighboring counties of Bourbon and Nicholas. Cynthiana has thus far escaped; but our citizens should be cautious about their manner of living.

Our young friends D. Arnold, of Paris, and R. L. DeJarnett, of Fayette, came down to see us on Monday evening, and congratulated us on the success of the American party in old Harrison.

Last week, as we were passing down the railroad from Lexington to Cynthiana, we met our young friend B. F. Cummins, at the Paris depot, who gave us a hearty shake of the hand. Frank is a glorious young American—his pleasing face can generally be seen at Garrett, Spears & Co's. store, Paris.

Hon. Abbott Lawrence died at his residence in Boston, on Saturday morning last.

Kentucky Election. Official returns from ninety-eight counties in this State, give Morehead, American, a majority of 6,541.

The five remaining counties gave Pierce about 300 majority. It is now reported that they give Clarke, anti-American, 2,000 majority, which is considered an improbable increase.

The yellow fever is prevailing to an alarming extent at Norfolk, Portsmouth, and other places in Virginia.

Two Patriots. We see by the Maysville Express (not the best authority in the world) that Gov. Morehead received but two votes in Johnson county, at the recent election. Wonder how many school-houses are located in Johnson county?

A great American barbecue was held at Thibodeaux, La., on the 9th inst. Five thousand Know-Nothings were present. Hon. Charles Derbigny, candidate for Governor, addressed the meeting in an eloquent speech.

Mr. Faulkner, member of Congress elect from Virginia, and Mr. Boteler, his late opponent, were arrested at Washington City, on the 17th inst., on a charge of preparing to fight a duel. They gave security in the sum of $5,000 each, not to fight there, or to leave the district for that purpose.

Gov. Metcalfe's Mode of Dueling. While Gov. Metcalfe was in Congress some years since, he was challenged by the celebrated General G. McDuffie, of South Carolina, to fight a duel. The challenge was readily accepted, and the weapons chosen by Gov. M. were Kentucky rifles; distance ten paces. The Carolina fire-eater backed out.

Contested Election. We learn that Maj. Fox, late candidate for Congress in the Danville district, intends to contest A. G. Talbot's right to the seat in Congress, on the ground of fraudulent and illegal voting. It is said that a large number of voters came over the Tennessee line and voted against Fox.

A clergyman catechizing the youth of his church, (don't ask questions as to the locality,) put the following question in the catechism, to a girl: "What is your consolation in life and death?"

The poor girl smiled, but did not answer. The clergyman insisted. "Well, then," said she, "since I must tell, it is the young printer on—street!"

We see that Col. Pike is giving the Kentucky Know Nothings especial thunder about the Louisville riots. He speaks feelingly on the subject, for does he not speak from experience? Verily, S-a-m-n-e-l knows how they fight in Kentucky.

NEWS ITEMS. A. W. Hamilton, a very prominent lawyer and citizen of Mt. Sterling, died a few days since. Mr. H. was at one time a member of the Legislature.

There has been but one death in Paris from cholera for several days past, that of James Mitchell.

It is estimated that the present population of Indianapolis is 30,000 and rapidly increasing.

Jas. M. Lyle, Principal Clerk of the Kansas Legislature, is from Madison county in this State.

A bark from Leghorn, Italy, of only twenty-six tons burthen, arrived in New Orleans last week.

Two attempts were made last Saturday night to burn the Christian Church in Nashville.

Geo. Wood, of Cincinnati, an engineer, died in New Orleans, Aug. 13, of yellow fever.

Gov. Corwin, of Ohio, favors the election of Trimble as Governor of Ohio.

"Kentucky peaches" are all the go in Indianapolis, Chicago, and other northern cities.

Counterfeit $5's on the Ocean Bank of New York are in circulation.

The Cincinnati House of Refuge costs that city an average of $300 per month.

Last week, the railroad circus was attached for debt at Lafayette, Ind.

Last Monday, in Bedford, Trimble co., a negro and a white man quarreled about a game of cards. A fight ensued and the negro was killed.

Three prisoners escaped from the jail at Evansville, Ind., last week, by knocking the keeper down when he entered with their supper.

The express train of the New Albany railroad run into a flock of geese the other day, killing several hundred.

The public schools of Cincinnati opened on Monday last.

DISERTERS.—A few nights since six sailors deserted from the U. S. receiving ship at Boston. They lowered a boat almost under the nose of the sentinel and escaped to the land.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ATTENTION TEMPLAR!

The members of Licking Valley Temple of Honor, and Crystal Point Social Degree, are requested to meet at their Hall on tomorrow evening, the 24th, as there is business of special interest to be transacted. Let every member be there.

All persons indebted to John B. Gruelle are requested to come forward and settle immediately.

HARRISON FEMALE SEMINARY, Mrs. I. A. Ormsby, - - - Principal.

This institution will again be opened for the reception of scholars, on the First Monday in September.

1. the new building on the corner of Pleasant and Crowwell streets, if finished can be obtained in the family of the Principal. The buildings are all new and commodious, and located in a pleasant and desirable part of the town. The reputation of this school is too well established to need any comment.

 and all diseases arising from an impurity of the blood. Impudence in Life, of humanity of the blood.
 This great elevating medicine, and Purifier of Food is now sold by thousands of grateful patients from all parts of the United States, who testify daily to the remarkable cures performed by the great restorer of audacity, Dr. J. C. Kirk's "Auriferous Elixir," Rheumatism, Gout, Cramps on the Stomach, Liver Disease, Fever, Deaf Old sores, affections of the Kidneys, the aching of the throat, female complaints, pains and aching of the Bones and joints are speedily put to flight by using this great and inestimable remedy.

For all diseases of the blood, nothing has yet been found to compare with it. It cleanses the system of all impurities, acts gently and efficiently on the liver and kidneys, strengthens the digestion, gives tone to the stomach, makes the skin clear and healthy, and restores the constitution, enfeebled by disease or broken down by age. It is a powerful tonic, and a vigorous stimulant. For the ladies it is an incomparable nutriment, and for the countries may be used.

ness of CURE'S Spanish language will remove all awkwardness of complexion, bring the roses blooming to the cheeks, give elasticity to the steps and vigor to the arms. It is a tonic for the system, and a cure beyond all the medicine ever heard of. The large number of certificates which we have received from persons from all parts of the United States, is the best evidence that there is no humbug about it. The press, hotel keepers, magistrates, physicians, and public men, well acquainted to the community, all read their testimony to the wonder effected of this great blood purifier. Call on the agent and get a circular and Almanac, and read the wonderful cures this truly greatest of all Medicines has performed. DR. C. M. JACKSON'S
CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS PREPARED BY
DR. C. M. JACKSON,
No. 120 Arch St., Philadelphia.

WILL effectively cure bile complaint, Dyspepsia, jaundice, chronic or nervous debility, diseases of the kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or stomach: Such as Constipation, Laxative pills, fullness, or blood in the blood, acidity of the stomach, nausea, heart burn, disgust for food, fullness or weight in the stomach, sour Eructations, stinking, or Fluttering at the top of the stomach, swimming of the theme, hurried and difficult breathing, fluttering

When in a high posture, dimness of vision, dotting of white before the sight, fever and chill pain in the head, deficiency of vespiration. Yellowness of the skin and eyes—pain in the side back and chest—flushes, sudden flushes of heat burning in the throat, and a sense of heat and evil, and great depression of spirits. The proprietor in calling the attention of the public to this preparation does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the diseases for which it is recommended.

It is no new and untried article but one that has stood the test of a ten years' trial before the American people and its reputation and sale are unrivalled by any similar preparations extant.

The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well known physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immense.

The following from your own state is respectfully
